Suggestions for projective work with Merlin – Ways of Wisdom Cards kit:

Activity 1: Insights

Choose any subject about which you wish to receive a message. Observe the picture. Examine the occurrence you see on your card, and how it is related to the subject you have chosen. Give the occurrence a title, and discover the lesson Merlin has given you. What are the powers you need in order to learn it?

Now, describe the occurrence in first person. Try to see what feelings and emotions are awakened by it.

Activity 2: Communication Centers

Ask a question which you are concerned with about a specific area in your life, and choose three cards. The first card represents the message from the heart (emotions). The second card represents the message from the brain (thoughts). The third card represents the message from the stomach (feelings). What type of message arouses from each center? What are the differences between the centers? What is the unifying message?

Activity 3: Gifts

Choose as many cards as team members. Turn each card to an empowering gift for each team member. Exchange gifts and explain (for example: the gift I want to give you through Merlin is... because...")

Activity 4: Lessons

Choose a subject (for example, love relationships, parenthood, career, etc.) Draw three cards. Arrange your cards in an order that will reflect your lessons chronologically: card 1 – lessons learned and internalized, card 2 – lessons in progress, card 3 – future lessons. Share your lessons and see how lessons learned can help you with lessons in progress and with your future lessons.

Activity 5: Merlin the Coach

Choose a subject in which you would like to create a change. Draw three cards. The first card represents "things that will draw me closer to my goal", the second card represents "things that take me away from my goal", and the third card represents "things that can bridge over the two". Analyze the results.
